

VIRGINIA COUPLE WED IN NEW YORK

Groom Says He Supplanted
Governor's Son in Bride's Affections.

After outwitting the old folks, Miss Rosebud Warrington, daughter of George F. Holmes, well-known young people of Norfolk, was married Tuesday in New York. The happy bridegroom said he had cut out William Hodges Mann, Jr., the son of the Governor of Virginia, who, he said, was engaged to Miss Hodges.

The New York World of yesterday carried the following story of the engagement:

An Old Dominion Line steamship that left for Norfolk yesterday afternoon carried among its passengers Mr. and Mrs. George F. Holmes, newlyweds. Both were happy over having eloped and thus outwitted their parents, but fearful they confessed of the eloping that awaits them when they reach Norfolk, their home town, this afternoon.

The bride, who was Miss Rosebud Warrington, nineteen years old, daughter of E. Brooks Hodges, a wealthy grain merchant with a home in Stockley Gardens, Norfolk, arrived in New York yesterday morning. On the pretense that she intended to visit friends who have a cottage at Virginia Beach, Miss Hodges stole away and came to New York. She was met at the Old Dominion pier by Holmes, a young stockbroker, with an office in the Citizens' Bank building, Norfolk.

In a taxi cab the couple hastened to the home of a mutual friend, Thomas L. Farrar, at No. 478 Washington Avenue, Brooklyn, where he is a Wall Street broker, had been made a confidant, and stood at the door of his home to welcome the young couple when they were driven to the hotel.

A visit was made to Borough Hall and a marriage license obtained. At a nearby jewelry store the ring was purchased. Then Rev. G. T. Dowling, D. D., pastor of St. John's Episcopal Church, Brooklyn, performed the marriage ceremony at the Farrar home.

Wives News to Parents.

"Rosebud and I are married," was the telegram Holmes sent to his parents and those of the bride.

"Hope they'll be reconciled to it," remarked Holmes later. "No, this isn't a really true elopement. Miss Hodges and I were engaged, but her family and mine insisted that we wait until the fall. We simply couldn't, we loved each other so."

Holmes' father is a prominent attorney in Norfolk and his grandfather, a professor at the University of Virginia, claiming relationship to Oliver Wendell Holmes, the poet.

Broke Another Engagement.

Mr. Holmes would not permit reporters who called on him to see the bride, but he assured them she was engaged and pretty. "Just as pretty as her name, and that's 'Rosebud,'" was the way Holmes expressed it.

Miss Hodges broke off her engagement with Hodges Mann, son of a former Governor of Virginia, when she accepted him, Holmes said. A graduate of the Norfolk Women's College, Miss Hodges has traveled all over the world. She is an accomplished musician and while at college was a star athlete.

Many plans for the ensuing season are being considered and the board for the improvement of the school. The Town Council has agreed to turf and other-ways beautify the grounds at its expense.

Officers Praise Camp at Luray.

Regular Army Men Pronounce It Finest They Have Ever Seen.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Luray, Va., May 24.—The military camp of the State Militia convened in Luray to-day. A large number of officers of the State organization are in attendance. The object of the gathering is for instruction in military tactics, and every feature of this phase of the militia will be discussed.

"Eight or ten officers from the United States Army are in attendance, and they are being given a royal reception by the local officers."

The camp is located on the Luray Caverns lawn, and the army officers are very pleased with the arrangements.

Every measure known to modern sanitation has been followed to the letter in the camp's arrangements. Electric lights have been installed, and water brought from the Blue Ridge for the accommodation of the soldiers.

His condition is such that he will be compelled to remain off his feet as much as possible.

Lajoie's absence from the line-up badly handicaps the club, which already has several injured players. He was batting .375 at the time of his retirement, leading the team in hitting.

ONE-DAY SESSION HELD BY COUNCIL

Daughters of Liberty Will Meet
Next Year in Alexandria.

NEW INDICTMENTS PROBABLE

Petersburg Veterans to Take Part in Memorial Day Exercises in Richmond.

Times-Dispatch Bureau.

103 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., May 24.

The State Council, Daughters of Liberty, of Virginia, after a day of busy work, concluded its labors last night about 9:30 o'clock, and adjourned to meet next year in Alexandria. The session was entirely harmonious, and ended with a delightful spread and social assemblage at the Stratford Hotel, to which the delegates and visitors marched in a body after adjournment.

In the council were representatives from the extremes of the State, as well as from the central portions. They came from Charlottesville, on the east, to Bristol, on the extreme west, and from Alexandria, on the north, to the North Carolina border. The great stronghold of the order is in Richmond and Swansboro, where there are over 3,000 members. At last evening's session several proposed amendments to the constitution were considered.

Sudden Death of Old Citizen.

James B. Perkins, an elderly and well-known citizen, died very suddenly of apoplexy about 7 o'clock last evening at his residence, on Halifax Street. Mr. Perkins had but a short while before returned from his day's labors, and had just eaten supper with members of his family. He arose from the table to take a seat by the window, when he was stricken and died in a few minutes. Mr. Perkins was a former member of the Board of Aldermen from the Sixth Ward. For many years past he had held an important position at the Dunlop tobacco factory, where he was a trusted and faithful employee. He was sixty years old, and is survived by four sons and three daughters—John H. Robert, E. Thomas D., James E., Misses Margaret and Fannie Perkins, of this city, and Mrs. J. Halligan, of Reams, Dinwiddie county.

More Indictments Probable.

Judge J. F. West will preside in the Hastings Court to-morrow, and will probably hear some of the Common Pleas cases. Judge Mullen being still detained, Roanoke. It is reported that some new indictments in the Appomattox Trust Company case probably will be brought before the grand jury at the present term of the court, different in form from the previous ones, but alleging the same violations of law.

Invitation Accepted.

A. P. Hill Camp of Confederate Veterans, at a meeting last night, decided to accept the invitation extended by R. E. Lee Camp of Richmond to visit that city on May 30 and take part in the Confederate Memorial exercises there. It is expected that many members of the camp will go to Richmond.

Commencement Exercises.

The closing exercises of the Southern Female College will take place on next Monday and Tuesday, and will be an event of great social interest in the community. The final concert and graduating exercises will be held Tuesday evening, when diplomas will be presented to the following graduates:

Full graduate—Miss Louise Clements, of Virginia.

Graduates in schools—Miss Margaret Collins, Miss Ernestine Long, and Miss Agnes Weed, of Florida; Miss Kate Galusha and Miss Mary Plummer, of Virginia; Miss Virginia Leigh, of North Carolina, and Miss Margaret Williams, of Maryland.

The closing exercises of Sunnyside High School, at McKenna, in Dinwiddie county, were held last evening, with a large attendance of the patrons of the school. The features of the program were the fine addresses of P. H. Dewry, of this city, and Mr. Blanton, of Richmond. Mr. Dewry gave a highly interesting sketch of the life and character of General William H. Brodnax, a native of Dinwiddie county, who was a distinguished figure in the history of the State in the first third of the last century.

The closing exercises of the Petersburg High School will be held in the Academy of Music June 3. Dr. J. C. Metcalf, of Richmond College, will deliver the address, and there will be fourteen graduates.

Personal and Otherwise.

Miss Josephine Schwenck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Schwenck, of this city, will leave for New York to-morrow, whence on Saturday she will sail for Germany.

The seventeen-year locusts are reported to have made their appearance in large numbers in portions of Prince George and Dinwiddie counties south here.

The Russian Foreign Office considered the Russian note which was sent yesterday to the Turkish government. The imperative character of the note, which warned Turkey that the concentration of Turkish troops along the Montenegrin frontier since the Albanian outbreak constituted a serious menace to peace, was dictated by the seriousness of the situation.

In spite of criticisms by the German press, which have been telegraphed here, the Russian Foreign Office considers the support of the majority of the powers and the active co-operation of Great Britain, France and Italy assured.

The measures against Turkey in case that government proves recalcitrant may include the employment of naval forces, which were efficacious in the case of Abdul Hamid. Russia has long watched the scene of the Albanian uprising with anxiety, and recent reports left no doubt as to the aggressive nature of the military movement on the Montenegrin frontier.

Turkey explained the massing of troops as a strategic necessity, claiming that the Albanian strongholds of Guntijo, Plava and Berani could be

Fresher Than Milkman's Milk, Richer—Purer—Cheaper

Swiss and Dutch experts have perfected for us the finest milk ever produced in America. It is like the milks of Switzerland and Holland.

This milk of ours comes from Holstein cows, fed in America's best dairy districts.

The milk fresh from the cow is put into a vacuum.

Then at a low heat, we evaporate two-thirds of the water. Nothing whatever is added—no sugar, no preservative. Nothing but water is taken out.

The milk is sterilized without scorching. It comes to you an absolutely germless milk. It is as thick as thick cream—28 per cent solids, 8 per cent butter fat.

In the past seven years we have spent $100,000 in learning through experts how to produce such milk.

Six Cents Per Quart

If this milk is reduced to the usual milk's richness the cost will figure about six cents per quart. Yet it is evaporated, sterilized and sealed up in tins.

Our process costs less than it costs the milkman to make his daily deliveries. That is where the saving comes.

Yet you get in Van Camp's rich Holstein milk, not milk from mongrel cows. You get a sterile milk in place of milk that is germ-laden.

You get the whole milk as it comes from the cow—all of the butter fat, all of the solids. It is not carted around—no left to stand and separate.

The society is in excellent condition.

Big Shipment of Cotton.

Yesterday and to-day E. A. Hartley & Brother, Inc., of this city, shipped over 800 bales of cotton to Norfolk, valued at $40,000.

Collector of Customs H. C. Willson to-day notified John Lawrence that the United States Treasury Department had awarded him the contract for certain improvements at the Federal Building. These include painting, removal of wall and iron fence, etc. The cost is about $1325.

Considering City Budget.

The Finance Committee is now considering the city budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1. The budget will in large measure depend on the estimates submitted by the various departments of the appropriations needed for them. The Council will continue public improvements next year, and these are to be considered.

A white straggler, giving his name as C. R. Miller, victimized a Sycamore Street merchant this morning by passing a bogus check on him for a small amount. He tried to do the same thing on other merchants, but failed.

Russia Ready to Act If Satisfactory Assurances Are Not Given.

St. Petersburg, May 24.—A solemn declaration of pacific intentions and willingness to abstain from using force in the Balkans was regarded as the sole satisfactory answer by Turkey to the Turkish government. The imperative character of the note, which warned Turkey that the concentration of Turkish troops along the Montenegrin frontier since the Albanian outbreak constituted a serious menace to peace, was dictated by the seriousness of the situation.

Firemen on Southern Will Quit Unless Demands Are Granted.

Washington, May 24.—The executive committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen tonight voted unanimously for a strike of the firemen on the Southern Railway, should the company refuse to accede to their demands for a 20 per cent increase in wages.

The committee will confer again with President Finley, and if he refuses the demand will at once order a strike.

The committee was in executive session practically all night. No conferences were held to-day between the railway officials and the firemen's committee. A few days ago it was said by the railway officials that the road could not grant the increase. The committee claims that with the increase they demand the firemen would not be paid wages as high as those paid firemen on other first-class railroads.

When informed of the action of the committee, President Finley, of the Southern, declined to make any statement.

A strike will affect 2,400 men, on 9,000 miles of road.

Free From Germs

Van Camp's Milk is utterly sterile. It is made so by pasteurization.

Raw milk, as you know, contains millions of germs. Of ten they are dangerous germs. Think how pleasant it is to drink a milk that has none at all.

This milk solves the whole milk problem. It supplies you a milk sealed up at the dairy—fresher than milkman's milk. It brings you the milk of the best dairying districts in a perfectly sterile state.

You can have a month's supply on hand, if you wish. Open a can when you need it. There's no shortage, no waste.

We Milk 30,000 Cows

We are milking daily 30,000 cows to supply the people who know this milk. Tens of millions of cans are used annually.

It is not like condensed milk, which is half sugar. It is not like the ordinary evaporated milk. Our Dutch and Swiss experts have created for us the finest milk in America. You ought to enjoy it.

One can will make you a convert.

The 16-oz. can—a full pint of Van Camp's—costs 10 cents. The 6-oz. can costs 5 cents. Evaporated and sealed at our dairies in six states. Order from your grocer.
